

Wednesday 24th June

Dear Diary,

You would never believe what has happened to me and Wilbur today! Mum has said that Wilbur needs to leave our home because he is far too big to keep living here. I couldn't believe what she was saying and tears sprang to my eyes. How on earth will he survive without me?

What Wilbur and you have done together?

- Fed him from a baby bottle
- Waited for you after school
- Pushing him in the pram or swimming
- Loved your time together - he is your pet, made him a house outside.

Short story about something you did together.

Pram or swimming - detail

Well, it's time for bed now so I must go. Hopefully, mum might have changed her mind in the morning.

Lots of love
