

Tuesday Literacy Activity

Can you fix the sentences? Correct the spelling and punctuation mistakes.

Use a dictionary to help you if you need to. Decide which words look right and which look wrong and try to correct them. Sometimes it helps to write words out in different ways until you find the way that looks right. Some of the sentences are missing punctuation - can you add them in? Have a go.

The shop window was coverd in an ainshent layer of dust durt and cobwebs which made it imposible to see inside

Hanging crookidly from the arch abuv was an old sine.

A faint lite could be seen comming from the darkest corner of the shop which gave it an eree glow.

Shutters attached to the fraims of the windows ratled and shook in the wistling wind.
