

Wednesday Literacy Activities - Sentence Work

Look at the image above and try to improve the sentence given in different ways. Use adjectives, similes, embedded clauses, endings and powerful verbs. Use the example below.

The wands were piled up on the shelves.

Prepositional phrase.

In the darkest corner of the shop, the wands were piled up on the shelves.

Embedded relative clause

The wands, which had been there for centuries, were piled up on the shelves.

Ending added

The wands were piled up on the shelves whilst waiting for a wizard to find them.

Add description

The mysterious, carved wands were piled up on the shelves.

Simile

The wands were piled high up on the shelves like precariously laid bricks.

You have a go. You can choose your own sentence to improve or change the one above.