

En ville

Bonjour la classe!

Comment ça va?

Last week you had a look at the French currency called the Euro. This week we're going to start a new topic, 'en ville' which means in town. We're going to learn the names of some places around town.

Dans ma ville il y a.....(in my town there is ...)

Look at the following slides, these are the names of some places you would find in town. Are any of them similar to English?

The pronunciation is written underneath!

le cinéma

sin-nay-mah

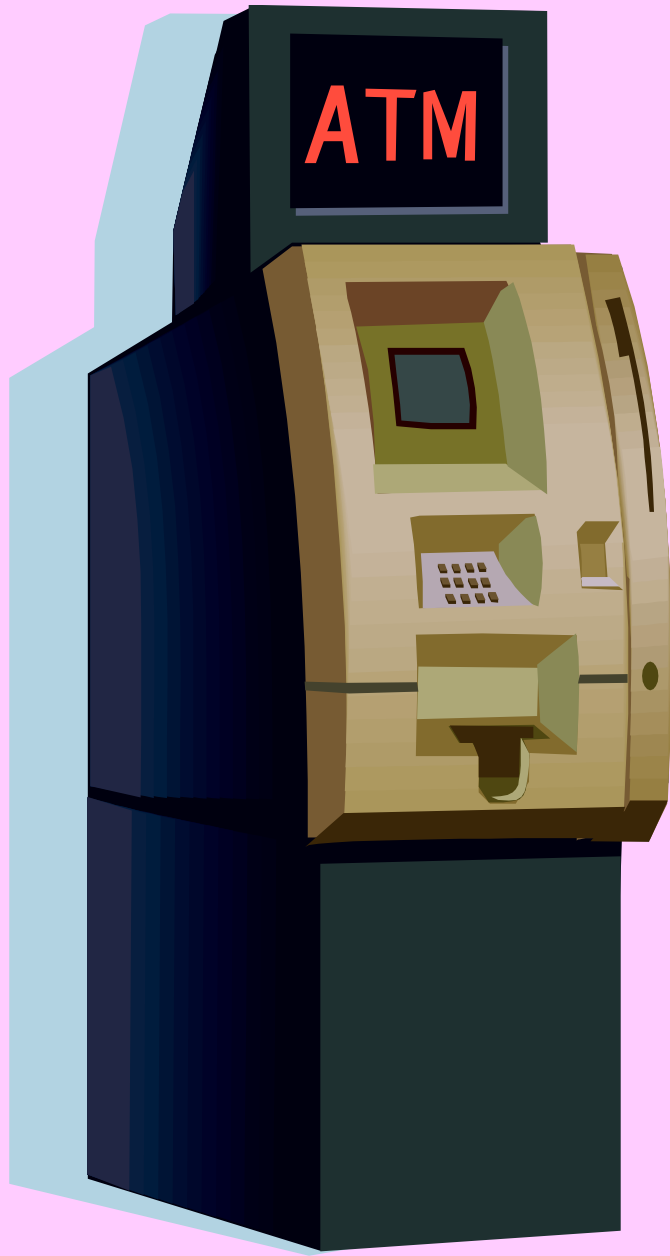

le supermarché

super-mar-shay

le musée

mu-say

la banque

bonk

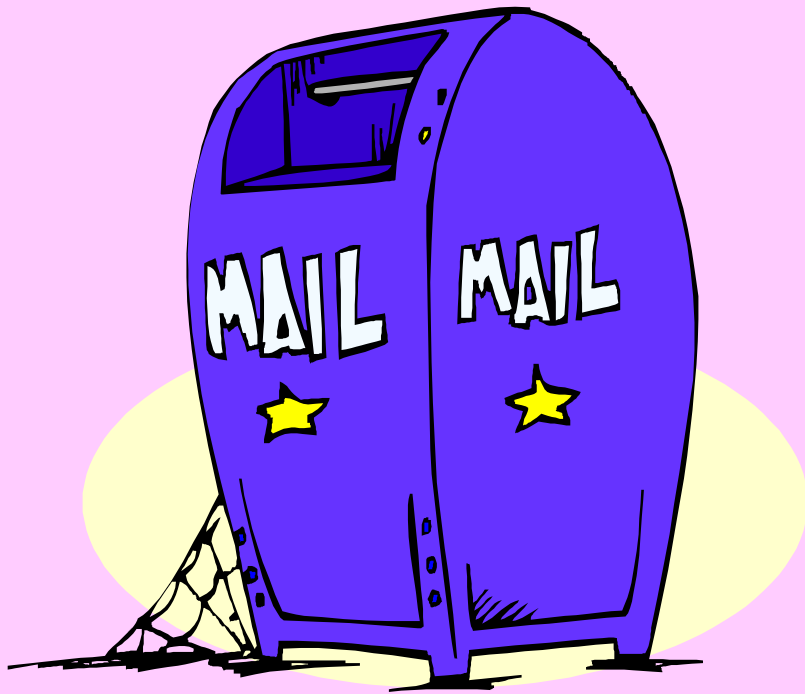

la gare

The screenshot shows the Linguascope website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the site logo, user options (APPS · SHOP · HELP · LOG OUT), and a breadcrumb trail (Home > Students > Beginner Section > French). Below this is a row of language selection flags. The main content area features a vertical sidebar on the left with categories: LES BASES, MOI ET MA FAMILLE, MON ENVIRONNEMENT, LA VIE AU QUOTIDIEN, LES LOISIRS, L'ALIMENTATION, LE MONDE DU TRAVAIL, OCCASIONS SPÉCIALES, and EN PLUS. A 'Back' button is located at the bottom of this sidebar. The central part of the page displays a grid of 13 vocabulary cards, each with an illustration and a French label: 'La météo' (umbrella), 'Ma maison' (house), 'Le mobilier' (furniture), 'Ma chambre' (bed), 'Les pays' (globe), 'Les nationalités' (person with passport), 'En ville' (traffic light), 'Les magasins' (shopping cart), 'Les animaux sauvages' (lion), 'Les animaux de la ferme' (chicken), and 'Le recyclage' (recycling bin). A blue arrow points from the text 'This one' at the bottom to the 'En ville' card. The footer includes the copyright notice '© Linguascope 2020' and the system tray with the date '13/05/2020' and time '10:24'.

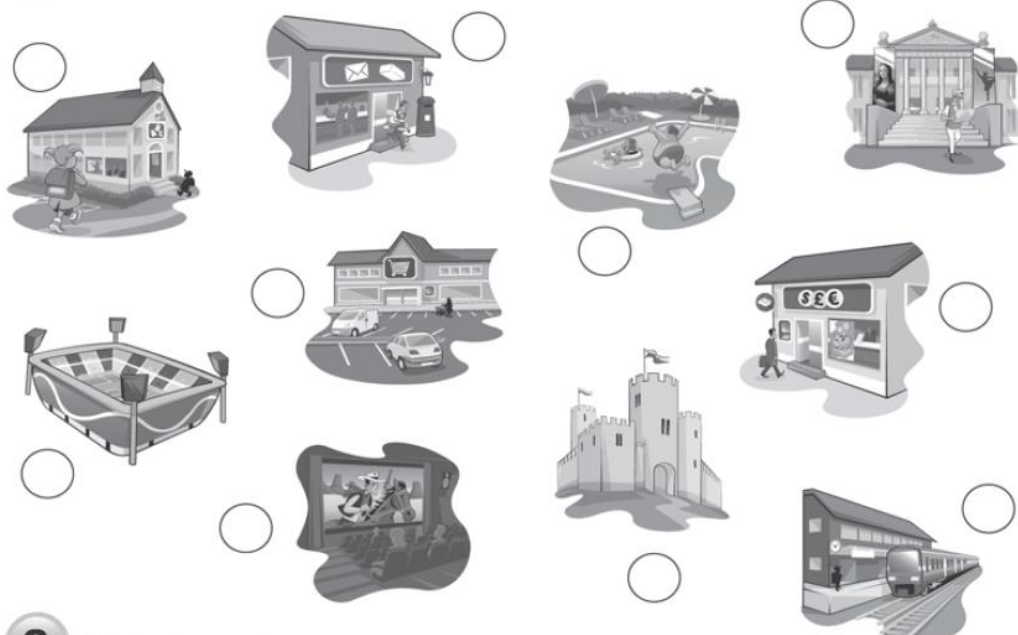

This one

Play on the games to help to learn all the different words for the places in the town..

Can you now correctly match them up?
