

Creating tension - Chapter 6

The writer captivates the reader's attention by creating suspense and mystery in the chapter. Explain how the quotations listed below create tension, as Michael enters the garage again.

Quotation	How the writer creates tension...
He (Dad) looked at me and winked. "Come and see what I found." (page 14)
My hands were trembling. (page 16)
I felt the cobwebs and the dust and I imagined that the whole would collapse. (page 16)
I heard things scuttling and scratching. (page 16)
My heart was thudding and thundering. (page 16)
I told myself...I told myself...I told myself (page 16)
But I did. (page 16)	