

In the Trees

Look at the image. If you were walking through these trees, what could you see? Write a description that tells your reader about

- a) your immediate surroundings
- b) the sky and weather above you
- c) what might be at the end of the trees

Think about how you can use your senses in your description. Try to create atmosphere by using noun phrases, similes and personification.