

Celebrations

We celebrate for lots of different reasons – like if we have won a game, if it's our birthday or if we have achieved something.

Throughout the year different communities celebrate lots of events and special days.

Follow the link below to watch a clip about some of the different celebrations that occur around the world.

There is also a lovely slideshow of pictures you can look at too.

Once you have watched the video choose your favourite celebration.

Could you draw a picture of your chosen celebration and write a sentence about what happens?

My chosen celebration is _____

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a black border, intended for drawing or illustrating a celebration.A series of eight horizontal lines, evenly spaced, intended for writing a description of the celebration.
